Jim Wells County Sheriff Daniel Bueno invites you to participate in a Rural Property and Livestock Theft Prevention Seminar on Monday, March 13, 2017. The seminar will be held at Gulf Coast Livestock Auction in Alice and will provide property owners with an opportunity to learn more about property and livestock theft prevention. Sheriff Bueno will also introduce the new Jim Wells County Rural Property and Livestock Identification Program. Participants will be able to register their properties and cattle and will receive a ranch sign to help identify property and livestock owners in case of an emergency. Come out and join us but be sure to RSVP by calling the Texas AgriLife Extension Office in Jim Wells County at 361-668-5705, so that adequate facility and meal arrangements can be made.
